All about me:

I'm 17 years old, and I'm in grade 11. I'm really shy. My friends in Japan, they said I'm not shy, but they are my friends, so I don't have to pay attention to their needs. I can't talk with person who I meet first time. That's one of my bad point. My friends are so nice. They always make me happy. When I get some trouble, they help me. Of course I help them, too. I'm really glad to meet them and made friends with them.

Next, I write about my family. There are 4 people in my family. Mom, dad, younger sister, and I. My mom is 43 years old now ,but looks like more young. When I went to the restaurant with her, one of the waitress said to me "Is she your sister?". I always say "Oh, no way." Like that. However she is different from me, she is very friendly, so she has many friends. She goes to eat lunch with her friends three times a week. Thats too much. But she does the housework every day. The supper that she makes is so good. I want to eat her meal soon.

My dad is a little bit strict, but he is kind. He is an self employee. He makes stainless steel and makes furniture using the stainless steel. So he is good at doing a very detailed task. He is good at skateboarding. I started skateboarding because of him. He understands me very well.

My sister is 13years old now.Her birthday is September 17th, and mine is September 14th. Too close. She is smart. She usually gets 470 out of 500 points on the mid-term test. I got only about 350 points when I was same as her age. She is good at skateboarding, too. Maybe she is better than me now. We usually fight, but I like her.

I love my family. When I said I wanna go study abroad to Canada, they took my please kindly. I really appreciate them.

I'm from Osaka, Japan. Osaka is a second capital of city. The capital of Japan is Tokyo. And I live in Osakasayama city. It is a very small city in Osaka, and countryside. There aren't any place that hang out with friends. But I love my city.

I don't have much hobbies, but I like skateboarding. Also I like reading comics, watching TV and movies, and shopping. I don't have much time to do those, because I have to do my homeworks. In Canada, too.

I think it was good that I decided to go to Canada. I could choose Canada, NZ, and Australia. I heard Canada's English is better than NZ and Australia to learn. I want to be an immigration officer, so I thought I should go to Canada. Also I was longing for Canada, because it seemed very free.

As I thought Canada is awesome. The air is so clean, and the buildings are so pretty. People are so kind. Host family is so nice. I'm very happy to be here, and studying English. I wanna buy a house for my souvenir to live in the future.
